

Post Budget hui Dunedin 2019

Is this a 'Children's Budget'?

Find out how Budget 2019 will affect children and young people, especially our most vulnerable

Every year CPAG and associates hosts a Post Budget event series with the aim to provide an accessible and affordable avenue for the community to come together and hear about how the budget affects children and young people. This year, Dunedin CPAG, along with Choose Kids will jointly host a Post Budget event to provide a child-focused analysis and commentary of the year's budget.

Guest speaker

Max Rashbrooke: "The Well-Being Budget: Is It Everything We Were Promised?"

Max Rashbrooke is a well-known author, academic and journalist, working in Wellington. Max writes about politics, economics and social issues. He is the author of Government for the Public Good (2018) and Wealth and New Zealand (2015) and the editor of Inequality: A New Zealand Crisis (2013). Max will analyse the effect of the 2019 Budget and other recent government policies on children and families in poverty. He will also stress the need to see these issues within the wider framework of economic inequality, and highlight the extraordinary steps needed to meet the Government's very challenging child poverty reduction targets.

Following Max's talk there will be a panel discussion featuring local people with an interest in issues of poverty and equity.
